

June 20th or 27th — University of Tampa

Science-Math-Master (SM²) is a program that provides professional development to teachers in Biology and Geometry at The University of Tampa. We need students to be audience members as teachers try out new lesson plans developed during the workshop.

Join us June 20th or 27th at the University of Tampa to participate!

What can you expect?

- Presentations of new lessons by geometry or biology teachers
- Opportunities to give oral and written feedback
- Opportunity to gain service hours toward Bright Futures and IB CAS hours

8am—5pm (may let out earlier)
